1. To God the Fa - ther, thanks and praise
2. The day on which his well - loved Son
3. To God our Fath - er, through his Son,

1. For this, the first and dawn of days;
2. O'er death and hell the tri - umph won;
3. And in the Spir - it, with them one,

1. The day when he, cre - a - tion's spring,
2. The day on which their Spir - it came,
3. We, new - cre - a - ted on this day,

1. Did light and life from cha - os bring.
2. Their gift to all, in wind and flame.
3. New songs of love and glo - ry pay.
